Just a Note

Who Needed Technology?

Growing up in Lyndhurst, I had cousins, aunts and uncles, and grandparents living in the same town as us. It was a blessing ... and a curse. There were no cell phones back in the 1950's but somehow, word from a relative always quickly got to my mother, especially if one of her three kids did something stupid. I can still picture Mom standing on our front stoop waiting for me, as I walked up the street, and she'd have her hands on her hips. "Hands on hips" was NEVER a good sign and that sight would automatically trigger my Self-preservation Plea Bargaining. Sometimes I won my case ... and sometimes I was without television for a week. No television! AUGH! Cutting off my right arm would have been more merciful.

And speaking of television; my parents never needed the luxury of a remote control. They had their three children sitting on the floor, right in front of the tv set! Whenever mom or dad said, "Somebody put on channel 2." (... or 4, 5, 7, 9, 11, or 13 - there were only seven tv channels back then.) one of us would get up and turn the channel knob really fast to the desired channel. This was immediately followed by a voice from the couch - "Stop turning the knob so fast!! You're going to break it!" And if we did break it, Dad was there to fix it.

My dad repaired almost everything in our house. If the television wasn't working, Dad would remove all the tubes from the back of the tv set, drive down to the hardware store and test each one until he found the 'bad one'. If our washing machine was broken, he'd take it completely apart and fix, or replace, whatever was needed. Yup, Dad would tackle any broken appliance, bike, or toy. After he'd completed his Mr. Fix-It task, ALL TOO OFTEN there'd be leftover parts, which Dad said were "extra parts that weren't really needed." Mom convinced him to hang onto those parts 'just in case', and over the years the 'Spare Parts Box' in our basement got bigger and bigger. Luckily for Dad, after his repairs were done, the washing machine did work fine, and we did get a picture with sound on the television, so apparently, he was probably right! But there was that one time he fixed my bike; I wouldn't get on it until my brother Eddie gave it a test ride. Yup, that was unfortunate for Eddie ... obviously some parts weren't 'extra'.

Another part of technology missing from our youth was the internet. We didn't have websites like Google or "Ancestry" to find out about our family's history. We didn't need it. We had Wednesday nights with my Aunt Rita, her sister Helen, and my mom. The three of them would sit at the kitchen table, and over a fresh perked pot of coffee and a Brown Derby cake from Mazur's Bakery (or crumb cake from Joe's Bakery), they would exchange endless stories about our relatives and the "old days". These family stories fascinated my sister Lynda and me, and we would sit at that kitchen table hanging onto every word. Naturally, just when they'd get to the really good stuff, we'd be sent to bed. Now, we lived in a small apartment, and our bedroom was right next to the kitchen, and on the nights that our aunts visited, we'd leave our bedroom door cracked open just enough to be able to hear them. We'd lie in bed with our eyes closed, listening to their conversation and picturing each story that became scenes in our mind. Nowadays, we'll rehash the 'old family secrets' that we overheard from the kitchen table ... something you can't (and wouldn't want to) find on the internet.

Thanks to technology, these days I have so much information at my fingertips, but I'm kind of glad it wasn't around while I was growing up. Then again, SOME technology would have been welcomed – like Dad being able to Google instructions for bike repairs! Again, sorry, Eddie!

Wishing You All a Healthy and Happy New Year!

ATTENTION: MAHJONGG PLAYERS

It's that time again, time to purchase our Mahjongg cards for 2026 and I am happy to say there has been no increase in price this year!

STANDARD Size Card = Cost $14.00

LARGE Size Card = Cost $15.00

I will be accepting orders (with CASH ONLY payments) at the SRP North Club House on Mondays from 11am to 12pm (before our Mah Jongg games begin) starting Monday, January 5th until Monday, January 26th. However, if you see me sooner, anyplace/anytime, I will be glad to take your order, and again, CASH ONLY please. If there are any address changes, please be sure to bring it to my attention when placing your order.

Just as a reminder, the National Mah Jongg League generously donates a percentage of our card purchases to whichever charity we choose. This year we have received a check in the amount of $235 for 2025, which was donated to the Holiday City-Berkeley First Aid. Much appreciation goes to all our card purchasers in SRP North, Westerly, and Holiday Heights. And a special thank you to Aida Losey and Loretta Manfre of Holiday Heights and Westerly for their help.

Please note that we are always glad to place an order for anyone from anywhere - you do not have to live in our communities. Tell your families and friends to order through us - I only need their name, address, phone number and, of course, their cash! 😊

If you have any questions, please contact me, Johanna LaRocco, at 732-569-6904. Thanks!

KEEP FEEDING THE DEER ... IF YOU DON'T MIND PAYING $500+ IN FINES

REPORT VIOLATORS: HOT LINE 732-797-1413

You may think it's okay and even endearing to 'hand feed' or put food out for deer to eat ... but it's not okay. By YOU feeding these WILD ANIMALS, their reproductive system are given surplus nutrition, enabling them to have multiple births during the year – not just in the Spring, as nature intended, but year round. More than likely, a fawn born in Winter will die – all because the doe was given abnormal amounts of food to sustain such a pregnancy.

Ten years ago, residents perhaps caught a glimpse of a deer, or two. Now, there are herds of 6 – 20 deer crossing our streets and congregating on lawns – leaving behind an abundance of unhealthy excrement, as well as ticks that cause life-threatening diseases, as some unfortunate residents can testify.

There is a way that YOU CAN STOP THIS UNNATURAL DEER POPULATION:

- STOP FEEDING THEM! Deer will NOT go hungry if you stop feeding them.
- If you do feed the deer, FACT: YOU ARE VIOLATING A TOWN ORDINANCE.
- If you see anyone feeding the deer, call the HOTLINE (phone number above). Simply give the address of the person violating the Berkeley Township Ordinance and a Representative will pay them a visit.

If the report is valid, the Violator will be given a First/One Time Warning. If the Violator chooses to ignore the First/One Time Warning, a SUMMONS WITH A $500 FINE WILL BE ISSUED.

If they choose to continue feeding the deer, they will be FINED AN ADDITIONAL $500 FOR EACH VALID OCCURRENCE REPORTED.

- Deer are wild animals, not pets! There are Animal Shelters full of dogs and cats that need love and nurturing. If you'd like a pet, please consider adopting one from an Animal Shelter and save a life.

REMEMBRANCE OF A LIFE PASSED

Let us gather in our grief
Over a life that was too brief

No matter how many years
It always ends in tears

The memories that were made
With loved ones never fade

Instead, we will each day
Remember when we pray

The heart that we held dear
Of the one no longer here.

INFORMATION UPDATE

Going forward, our Food Bank will be available to all residents and held in Ward 4, on the 4th Friday of each month. Each community will have this newsletter and food bank information posted in their monthly paper. If you have any questions, please contact me or Mike Signorelli, we will be happy to give all necessary information.

A new report has been given that one in ten people are in need of assistance. If you find yourself, or an acquaintance, in need of food please come to our Monthly Food Bank. The next Food Bank delivery will be January 23rd, 2026. The Food Bank agency also offers guidance and assistance to citizens in need, while the Food Bank is here delivering food, an advisor from Social Services will answer any questions regarding what's offered by the County. Don't miss out, if you need help, please come and meet with an advisor. There is complete privacy and your information is kept strictly confidential.

This past year it was brought to my attention that there are residents living here in our community that are "Shut-in's". A Shut-In is someone that can't or doesn't drive, has difficulty walking and they are doing without many basic needs. We have helped many residents who are Shut-in's. Please call our number, 732-244-7400 ext. 1205, to give us your name and we will make arrangements to help.
